

I would be completely at a loss without closed captions.
They provide, for me, the opportunity to view television and movies with clarity. They are a wonderful tool for the hearing impaired and efforts should be made to keep and improve upon the captioning services available.

Sincerely,
Nette Bevard, deaf television viewer since 2002